

Dear Mark,

As you know, we had a recent tragedy that severely affected our home by having a car ram through our Kitchen. With injured family members and under great duress, we appreciate your cool and calm manner. Your expertise and guidance, working with all the different parties was brought great calm to our family during troubling times to say the least.

Thank you very much, Jim, Yookie and the rest of our family